3 Scholarships will be awarded

$1,000 • $750 • $500

Applicant Procedure:

1. Scholarships will be awarded based on original written essays submitted by the applicant. A panel chosen by the IASC scholarship chair will judge essays.
2. The essay theme is: "Tell Me About Your Snowmobile Family..."
3. All applicants are required to have successfully completed a snowmobile safety class. A copy of the applicant's safety certificate must accompany each essay submitted.
4. Format:
  - A. Two to four pages, typewritten and double-spaced.
  - B. Essays judged on content, originality, neatness, spelling, and grammar.
  - C. Cover sheet (on reverse side):
    - a. Name, address, phone, and email
    - b. Parent's name and address
    - c. Name and address of school
    - e. Club president must sign cover sheet as club president
    - f. include photograph of self
  - D. Cover sheet will be removed before judged, and any reference to club, family, etc. will be removed so that only the quality of essay is judged.
  - E. Winning essays will be published in the Illinois Snowmobiler.

Each scholarship check will be mailed directly to the recipient's school prior to the beginning of the second term, upon submission of any official transcript that shows the student has earned the equivalent of a "C" average or better. A special presentation will be made during the Sunday Brunch at the IASC Convention. Recipients and their immediate families are asked to be present.
